

SuperEgg Hunting Expedition

The produce

The end result of natural farming, our eggs are awesomely nutritious. Free of antibiotics, hormones and chemicals, our hens are much healthier than most of us two-legged fellow beings. For example, twice a month they can get some superfoods. Other than that, there are lots of secrets to produce these SuperEggs you can find in this hunting trip!

Come learn & experience

If you love all things natural you have come to the right place. At the farm which is located in Kampung Tras, Raub, Pahang 1.5hrs drive from KL, you will find out that free range chickens are just the beginning. Learn what goes into the feed and how the farm makes good environment for hens so that our hens lay the finest eggs you can find in Malaysia.
